All my sunny days all my happy waves come from you you know your eyes help brighten my skies when Im down if I give or take could I make you mine cause theres no one else with your sweet smile I confess/stars take me tonight to where ever she is and dont you let her cry she means more to me than you could ever imagine, she what they call a dream/ youre my sunshine youre my everything yes you are everything I have everything I am longs for you dont mind if I cry if you walk away tonight cause theres no one else that Id rather swing with than you into the sunshine
