English translation

My heart, my bonds, they may disappear, but..
I will never let thing things that were here fade away
My pain, my memories, they may disappear, but..
The wish I want to protect will be left behind and become hopeLike stone returns to dust. Like water returns to the sky
This was the divination destined, correct?Don't cry, don't cry. Just please, with your quiet feelings
Become the soft light, and envelop me.
I'm sure I am looking at you Who is in the world I love...Happiness, sadness, they may disappear, but..
The smile that I exchanged with you, that is the truth
My pain, my memories, they may disappear, but..
The wish I want to protect will be left behind and become hopeReach and become hope.
