Cover my eyes

I don't wanna feel this Hurt with all it's sadness
I've only got one life to live Still it's long before I'll get myself together now I've got nothing left to give

If you only knew what
I was going through now
You would understand my view
Can't you justify this
This situation for me
For however long I need

Why don't you:
Cover my eyes so I don't have to see Cover my ears to the cries around me
Keep up my spirits with little white lies and whenever there's evil, cover my eyes, cover my eyes, cover my eyes

I just couldn't know that
It would end this way now
And it's driving me insane Help me get away from
All this heartless torture
Bring me back to yesterday.

All these tears are like a
Never ending story
Lead me to the happy end
Can't you justify this Situation for me For however long I need

Why don't you:
Cover my eyes...Thanks to thudord
