SHE: Through all of my life
I never thought I'd feel this way
You've made me complete
With you I've found the words I couldn't say
Which suddenly have come to me so clear

(Refrain) I'll take you for good, for bad, for worse, for better
We'll be just like two birds of a feather
So come take my hand and you'll understand
Baby, I'll take you for good

HE: My demons inside kept my fears alive
But you had kept my soul supplied
With tenderness and honesty
And a love to last always

SHE: I'll take you for good, for bad, for worse, for better
BOTH: We'll be just like two birds of a feather
So come take my hand and you'll understand
Baby, I'll take you for good

SHE: I'll take you for good!
HE: You can't love without a fight
SHE: You must work to make it right
HE: You mean the world to me
SHE: You are my destiny
BOTH: With you I finally see the light
HE: ...See the light

I'll take you for good
SHE: for bad, for worse, for better
HE: ...Take you for good
SHE: We'll be just like two birds of a feather
So
BOTH: come take my hand and you'll understand
Baby, I'll take you for good
