There is protein in the air
There is protein everywhere
Life begins when stars collide
And my womb is open wide
Where the rockets fear to slide

I'm the peacock Valentino
Planets live in coalition
White and slimy, I'm bambino
Ready in attack position

There's a rocket in my pocket
Here's the plug now where's the socket
Supersonic electronic
Check the splashing when I crash

Dress me up in cellophane
Rhythm of the oxygen
Galaxies invading
We are the universe

Chosen ones an amalgam
Orchestrate the gamelan
Asteroids parading
We are the universe
We are the universe

I'm a black hole majesty
The big bang fertility
Life begins when cells divide
And my womb is full of pride
Where the rockets fear to slide

Sayonara kamikaze
Magic sperms in competition
Sayonara karaoke
Cosmic fluids in transmission

There's a rocket in my pocket
Here's the plug now where's the socket?
Supersonic electronic
Check the splashing when I crash

Dress me up in cellophane
Rhythm of the oxygen
Galaxies invading
We are the universe

Chosen ones an amalgam
Orchestrate the gamelan
Asteroids parading
We are the universe
We are the universe

After light years in a cloud
Comets nurse the primal seed
One sperm destined in the crowd
To fertilize the earthly breed

I'm the peacock Valentino

There's a rocket in my pocket
Here's the plug now where's the socket?

Dress me up in cellophane
Rhythm of the oxygen
Galaxies invading

Chosen ones an amalgam
We are the universe
We are the universe

Chosen ones an amalgam
Asteroids parading
We are the universe

Dress me up in cellophane
Rhythm of the oxygen
Galaxies invading
We are the universe

Chosen ones an amalgam

We are the universe

Dress me up in cellophane
