Toilet Town

I've been kickin' around in your toilet town where the factory runs to the lake in your tin can eyes and your parking lot smile I can see your reluctance to leave through your slaughterhouse window your killing room floor where the bible belt beats down upon you you've got thirteen hard acres you can seed anymore and you're choking on dust clouds and anger its been a lonely dream, come away with me (Instrumental)

I've been pissing around in your roughneck town I've been wondering what I should do you put roots in this ground and you won't let them go like you think you've got something to lose well, I'll tell it straight to you, I told you before you will always be who you decide to and if I were you darlin' I'd run out that door and I'd take not one look back behind me there's a great big world to see come away with me they'll show you how to live to love the richness of a whole life lose the old routine you know what I mean?
