Tarheel Slim:

I hear you knocking
on my door
you can't come in
I don't want you no more you're too late
bye darlin'
you're too late

Little Ann:

The morning I left you
On train number 9
I didn't realize
what I was leaving behind I did, it was too late
too late too late

Tarheel Slim:

you took my heart
out in the park
you played a game
that you know
you couldn't win

Little Ann:

please forgive me
take me back and see I'll never make the same mistake again

Tarheel Slim:

you're too late
I have found somebody new and she loves me
like I once loved you
you're too late
my darlin'
you're too late
