sitting here thinking of you thinking about what i should do.
if you only knew how i felt inside, i've got nothing to hide.
and i will never hurt you, and i will never forget you, and i will never replace you in my heart. and i will always be there,
and i will never stop to care,
and i will always keep you in my heart.

what's wrong with me?
why can't this be?
let's give it a try only you and i.
just give me a chance to prove to you,
need you in my arms tonight.
guess i'll have to wait, wait for you.
guess i'll have to wait, too good to be true.
guess i will have to wait for you.
