"Last To Know"

When my mind is on something else,
I've gotta get my heart back from the shelf.
When nothing is gonna go my way,
my life potrait colours begin to fade.

I'm having too much to dream.
Is nothing as easy as it seems?
Is everyone feeling just like me?
Going through your life down on your knees.

But I'm not willing to fall.
I'm not one to give up.
I dont want to.

This is a call going out to you all to save you from me.
I couldn't save me from myself.
This is a call going out to you all to think about me.
Think about me when I'm gone.
