Another days gone by (I'm another day older)
Let off a heavy sigh (can't believe it's over)
It's over my head and somewhere else (somewhere where I wanna be)
Dazed and confused (tell me where I'm going)
High Schools over (where am I going)
What am I still doing still standing here (run for the hills, causeâ€¦)
College is here!!!

Where to go (what to do)
Now I'm on my own (my decisions to choose)
What if I choose wrong (what will happen to me)
Finance this (and Finance that)
I need money (and money fast)
College is to stressful [towards me]!

College life seems like a strife,
But it's alright for me,
Cause I'm used to the pressure (of someone being better),
So it seems worth this to me.

Gotta do my laundry (what's up with that)
Mixed the reds with the whites (and had a heart attack)
Its so funny cause now I [wear pink boxers]
So far so good (nice neighborhood)
Even though I don't blend in (they think I should)
It's my choice anyway (to be different)
I've always [been different]!

College life seems like a strife,
But it's alright for me,
Cause I'm used to the pressure (of someone being
better),
So it seems worth this to me.

So now were all grown up
Time to start a life in the world,
Get a professional job,
And here we go!!!
