

Tears Of A Phoenix

"Last Goodbye"

For now our last goodbye,
We leave with a thousand tears in our eyes,
Silence covers our every word,
Not knowing what to say,
While breaking light on another day,
I guess this is our last goodbye.

Now as we learn from our mistakes,
This time we shall not take,
As we waste our lives away.
For if this isn't our last goodbye,
Lets hope that the days will fly,
Until we meet again.

Now as the air gets stale and old,
You left me so far back in the cold,
But you don't walk away with pride.
As each step makes you smaller,
Yours truly grows a bit stronger,
But with mistrust stuck in my side.

Now as we learn from our mistakes,
This time we shall not take,
As we waste our lives away.
For if this isn't our last goodbye,
Lets hope that the days will fly,
Until we meet again.

Goodbye!
