

Tears, The "Two Creatures"

This country looks like one big car park
The winters are so very long And everybody wonders where the light has gone

And Europe has its moving statelines but Africa has winter sun
And you and me we're just two creatures on the run

And we'll go where the crowds don't stare
And no one laughs at what we wear
The phone might ring, the rain might sting oh but we don't care

We'll fly over endless ocean, we're heading for the winter sun
Cos you and me we're just two creatures on the run

And Europe has its moving statelines but Africa has winter sunshine
And you and me we're just two creatures on the run

And we'll go where the crowds don't stare and No one hates us for our hair
The phone might ring, the rain might sting oh but we don't care

We'll fly over endless ocean, we're heading for the
winter sun
Cos you and me we're just two creatures on the run

America's our supermarket, in India we'll take some stopping
Cos you and me we're just two creatures on the run

In Asia we can mend our breakdown cos
You and me we must escape now
Yes you and me we're just two creatures on the run
