It's hard to have strength when there's nothing to eat
And it's hard to eat when you don't have the teeth
And how when you lose the one thing you love
There's nothing below, and there's nothing above

Well I've been going through changes
I've been going through changes
I've been going through changes
With nothing at all

It's hard to accept when you don't understand
And it's hard to launch without knowing how to land
And how when it burns you can't change a thing
Oh, you can soften the blow, but you can't stop the sting

Well I've been going through changes
I've been going through changes
I've been going through changes
With nothing at all
Nothing at all
Nothing at all

Well I'm still yours
Even if you're not mine
I stare at the floor
And I study the lines
Oh when I took my place in the back of the crowd
Baby, I couldn't see, but at least it was loud
At least it was loud

And I've been going through changes
I've been going through changes
I've been going through changes
And I know that I needed changes
But I guess 'cause this is not painless
No, this is not painless

With nothing at all
