Defend when you said
You've been dropin' bombs here on air
Made me sad 'coz your a man
You've got your own blood in your own hands

What you stole? What you took?
Could break your heart and fill a book
The story, tragedy
And your memory, low as me

I saved your life a hundred times, is this all that I get?
It's a total, a total waste of time
I saved your life, I tried to share, do I don't even care?
It's a total, a total waste of time

For a season the good guys win
But your enemy was within
Made me sad, you were a man
Till you had your own blood in your own hands

I saved your life a hundred times, is this all that I get?
It's a total, a total waste of time
I saved your life, I tried to share, do I don't even care?
It's a total, a total waste of time

I saw the light from the lawn
You were out again 3 in the morn'
Flashin' came like a silent veil
And I have never seen skin so pale
