(feat. Tedashii)

[Tedashii]

ALL RISE, for the coming of the king of the Jews
Sixteen saints salute for Him bringin the truth
Hold up for a minute put your focus on Him
The selah for a second to catch more than a glimpse Of the one placed higher than the angels in heaven Pre-eminent so dawg that means He never comes second
Nothing should ever replace or overshadow this God
Ever reduce or lower his position as God
Man, He's holy, plus diving with all splendor
It's time Jesus Christ became your life's true center
The focus of your life so that your life be permanent
Pause
And peep this God that made the world and the firmament
Man, I'll put this on my momma, He'll blow that mind
Watch as I paint the picture for ya, its kodak time
If you ever wondered who He was, then no that now
No interruption take the sweets and heats and throw that down

[Chorus]

How can you hear about this God dawg and not get impressed?
The one that gave the sky its height and the ocean its depth
The one that hung all of the planets plus the moon and the sun
And let you hear this song that you might commune with the Son

[Tedashii]

So tell me what you seeing when you looking at God
Is it Yahweh the indescribable, unspeakable God
Or dawg, is it Elohim, all sovereign and majestic
The provident creator with a six day checklist
Or maybe the King of Kings up on the side of the Father
With nail prints in his hands cuz He decided to bother Or do you look and see someone who ain't no better than you

Well if you the focus dawg I suggest you better your view

How you gon' act like you compare to Him?

You don't compare to the seraphim that cherish Him

Man, you got two lungs that still need air in them

The bottom line dawg, when you looking at God

You should see the king of glory not a midst or a fog

Not Father Time with the long beard and clock and not this passive Jesus Walks that you hear in hip hop

But the God of the Bible Isaiah saw in Chapter 6

Who got a glimpse and said "God is Holy, I need to repent"

[Chorus]

[Tedashii]

Man, I've been looking for a minute how we impressed with things

Plus ourself, so we came to address this thing

We came to rep Him so dawg you would bless the King

And be impressed like Froto was with the ring

Like the Phanatik, take time dawg and think on these things

Think about how you're a sinner and you need to be clean

We sons of Adam fallen sinners and deserve to be killed

Man, we couldn't keep the standard cuz perfection His will

He is coming back for all of the cats

That allowed Christ to be they ransom and satisfy God's wrath

But, we'd rather think the bible's all about us

Instead of Jesus whom God said put all of your trust

Man stop coming up to God cuz you think He'll bless ya

Man stop coming up to God cuz you want something extra

Its time he impressed ya, and not because of all that He's done

But because of who He is dawg the Glorious One

[Chorus]
