

Teenage Fantasy

"Silver Mountain"

Visit "Silver Mountain" on MotoLyrics.com

The baron took my life away from me and I am just a normal man.

The silver cheek of her memory is all I have.

I will search for you all night.

Come to say us, time traveller.

Following the stars through the atmosphere.

When all of silver mountain shines,
we know the rescuer has arrived.

They've got me working in a factory and I am falling underneath.

Still the silver cheek of her memory is all I have.

Dry your eyes.

Keep them set on silver mountain.

We will bury your mother beneath the fountain.

Thanks to Razvan

Visit Teenage Fantasy page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.