I am thunder from silver moon and sky
Born of a daughter
Creation of Great Spirit of wonder.

The warrior the warrior ventures on his own
The warrior the warrior child of moon and water.

Turn around and let the winds direction guide you.
Fear no sound your ancestors are right beside you.

Dark Spirit will fear me because I'm a warrior.
The warrior the warrior the warrior ventures on his own
The warrior the warrior the warrior child of moon and water.

The shaman asked for you/ your vision will come true.

Turn around and let the winds direction guide you.
Fear no sound your ancestors are here beside you.
Wild untamed and gentle child of southern arrow wood.

A legend tells of a modern warrior who will rescue all of our people from evil spirits.

Turn around and let the winds direction guide you.
Fear no sound your ancestors are here beside you.
Wild untamed and gentle child of southern arrow wood

I am thunder I am made from silver moon and sky.
