The lady of miracles commands the river.
Today we saw her bathing in the nude.
We will watch her celebrate the moon.

Tell me of the earth.
Tell me of your secrecy,
Passed down through the ages.

Tonight I try to stay away from you,
lady of Northern Star.
Tonight I try to stray away from you,
and watch you creep through the yard.

Be ready for anything beyond the borders.
The younger cats have come to tear away.
Tonight they hunt their prey and it is you.

To the youth.
To the end of dreams.
To your teenage fantasy.
