(Dwight Yoakam)

Listen in the places you hide
Woah, oh, oh, listen through the stillness inside Yeah, yeah, yeah listen to the words that are near
And try to hear

Listen take one less step away
Please listen love may persuade you to stay Yeah, yeah, yeah, baby listen past the sound of your fear
And try to hear

Two hearts that doubted now beg to believe
Acting in silence, each whispers a plea
Secrets of longing kept buried away
Sadly their calling grows weaker each day

Yeah, please listen for hope that's been left behind Listen to the small traces you find Yeah, yeah, baby, please listen before this chance disappears
And try to hear

Listen in the places you hide
Yeah, listen through the stillness inside
Please, please baby listen for the love that is near
And try to hear

Yeah, listen
Whoa, listen
Please, baby listen
Yeah, yeah, yeah, baby listen
Past the sound of all fears and try to hear
