In front of mirrors
I wait to be seen holding the hurt with one hand you scream
(I could change take this picture in my head and rip it up in front of what is holding me back)

(Chorus)
1,000 Shattered Dreams
it drowns the fire of what could be take your faults and cancel them out
'cause it's broken fix it, broken fix me....

Fist full of sand falling through my fingers like life which once held so much love but this jaded hatred is all I have to wish for, wish for.... to break me down again (Where is the shortcut
I'm feeling you
I wish I was feeling you now.....)

(Chorus)
1,000 Shattered Dreams
it drowns the fire of what could be
take your faults and cancel them out
'cause it's broken fix it, broken fix me....

Your smiling at me could I kiss that grin off your face if not show me, if not you'll see what, no chances really mean.....
