Don't you waste another thought on me, please wind blowing right through my fingers and your eyes pierce when you look at me I can't lie anymore or hide this inside you're so cold to me and I'll always be colder than you are

Can't stand the chorus
Remember when we kissed under the moon
Can't stand this song, anymore
I must make you cry
you hurt me, no
another lie
I hurt myself, I hurt myself

Tear up my songs
I really hate them, anything I have done they could never tell anything so just burn them
I never made you smile
I always bring you down you know you'd be happier (so much happier) with him

Can't stand the chorus
Remember when we kissed under the moon
Can't stand this song, anymore
I must make you cry
you hurt me, no
another lie
I hurt myself, I hurt myself

The music makes me die staring at space through a car stereo does nothing mean anything just stop me, just stop me before I make you cry make you cry (4x)
