take my hand come with me
into this crystal scenery and wait until I retain a ticket you would never have the time i would love to change your mind you were there and it was good in the beginning over here, see the lights arranging twilight sages commence to reveal it to the others
you would never have the time
yeah take my hand come with me into this crystal village and see the lights so fried in brightness cos you will never have the time

i see the lights so brightly and we fall as if we never really mattered
it was there and it was good in the beginning we were there and we were good in the beginning
