"when you see the light"

Visit "when you see the light" on MotoLyrics.com when you've seen the light you could imagine where you can go

and when you walk outside you could've had it
you felt alone
so why'd you say those words to him if you could start over again when you asked for this it was a gift, yeah they let you have and once you've seen the light
you will remember
(you WILL remember)
where you could go
(you WILL remember)
when you would go away
yeah, you turn it around and see how they came to be there oh but you've never seen the lives in-between

no they won't care

and when you tell those words to him just be sure to start over again yeah just be sure to start over again
