Dawn breaks twice And I breathe awhile If I could speak I would make you smile And you'd be free Watching over, over me But it's always in my head All those times you wished me dead When I think up of All the things we could've been Come on in out of the rain Please don't speak Let's just sleep awhile And just dream on Soaked in blood and bile It never seemed Took me over Took me in In again Cos it's always been the same And it's screaming out my name When I think up of All the things We could've been Come on in out of the rain
