the way the wind blows
the way like mothers know the way we all go
but i don't know

imagine falling down a staircase there's no turning back again

when i'm lost
will i be found

my life's a rigged test i try to do my best but i'm not always doing my best i could use some assistance cuz everybody's doing something if they wanted to or not

i'm lost
will i be found
when i'm lost
will i be found
will i be found
when i'm lost
