i'll hand it to the man who can't obey the laws of the land becomes a natural stowaway jump ship for a new horizon but does not know the ropes all he's got is electric guitar a little faith and hope there's a place in the heart that reflects in the dark beating to galactic anarchy

one thing does not belong with the others one thing is slightly out of place
(and when we're gone) our lives won't be erased
(we're gone) our lives won't be erased (we're gone) so our lives won't be erased for good earth escaper away from home who's so happy mining saturn's precious stones rock out in a new dominion rock out to the force rock and roll energy coming from a virgin source

there's a place in the heart

(and when we're gone) our lives won't be erased
(we're gone) our lives won't be erased
(we're gone) our lives won't be erased for good

(and when we're gone) our lives won't be erased
(we're gone) our lives won't be erased
(we're gone) so our lives won't be erased for good

(and when we're gone) our lives won't be erased
(we're gone) our lives won't be erased
(we're gone) our lives won't be erased for good
