after all that we've been through i close my eyes to look at you i do

shake my head and bite my hand oh, all the attention that you so demand when you shine across the land

you got that radioaction
brighter than a sunny day i wear a lot of protection just to keep all your sun away incineration, baby coming straight from the heart why can't i win not the love but the other thing so ya burn down my buildings you're so crazy when i'm with you oh silly me baring my ass to the moon

just to...

you can bust out the hammers baby but it's thicker than the average shell we cannot tell a playful kiss, my private hell
