when you're bored
go steal a bike or two inhale some gas or glue freak out your parents
when your lips turn blue

noone will ever know if you sell all the things you stole skip class and smoke a bowl or switch your gender role cuz don't you know

the time is right (right)
to be wrong
the time is right (right)
to be wrong
feels so good
kinda like it never should
to be wrong

kick somebody's ass
then run away real fast plunge through a pane of glass rip off your braces
saw off your plaster cast

cuz you're never too young to make a booty call or tag a sign or a wall
or even make your enemies fall, fall, fall

to be wrong
to be wrong

to be wrong

defy the weather
stay young forever
don't you know you're never gonna die
you know you're never gonna die

so hack into a government mainframe and launch a bomb
always be where you don't belong go make yourself a drink and make it strong

to be wrong
