"Money No More"

I see the fancy life you've been chasing
That's a pretty car you've been racing
You mention your vacations, the beach of Bali
Well good for you
But that doesn't matter much to me
Cause it's only money

Before this you were funny and charming
What's been going on is alarming
Cause now you only value the thing that you pay for
Well get a clue
It's money, no more

Yes it's money, no more
Less important than a little smile
No, I can't be around your money no more
No, no more

Do you remember
How simple it all used to be
For you and for me
We were happy
Who cares what we had or had not
You came up in the world and forgot

You called me from the phone in your pocket
To say you're moving up like a rocket
Whatever is in fashion is what you pine for
You know you do
It's money, no more

Yes it's money, no more
Less important than a tender word
No, I can't be around your money no more
No, no more

Do you remember
The pizza we'd eat in the park
We'd walk until dark
By the river
And we never hurried our pace

Or cared if we were going someplace

Oh I remember
The man I imagined you were
The one I prefer

Your compassion
For people you grew to ignore
This world of your's is money, no more
