You've had the same look on your face for weeks
Do you think that you will ever get the colour back in your cheeks

I used to make you smile
I haven't done that for a while

We're speaking less often now don't you think?
We've been piling up the silences like plates in the kitchen sink

I used to make you smile
I haven't done that for a while
I used to make you smile
I haven't done that for a while

Conversation has been slowly replaced
By the factual accounts of the events of our days
Cos there's nothing else to say

???
Set the clocks so the alarm will go off??
Just like every day

I used to make you smile
I haven't done that for a while
I used to make you smile
I haven't done that for a while
I used to make you smile
I haven't done that for a while
I used to make you smile
I haven't done that for a while
I used to make you smile
I haven't done that for a while
