Plans gone awry for a Saturday night with another crowd
Would I go dance with you tonight
I can't dance but Christ I'll try
Ooooooh been thinking 'bout why
I'm nervous, I'm nervous, I get so nervous
When your boyfriend leaves me stood by your side
Aaaaaand I know he's my friend
But he treats you unfairly
You just don't deserve it
I've been thinking of a happier end

It shoulda never crossed my mind, now it's too late
It shoulda never crossed my mind, now it's too late
You love him but you don't know why, now it's too late
It shoulda never crossed my mind, now it's too late

It shoulda never crossed my mind, now it's too late
It shoulda never crossed my mind, now it's too late
You love him but you don't know why, now it's too late
It shoulda never crossed my mind, now it's too late

If I fall asleep now I might fall so deeply I'll never rise
Let's stay awake awhile
If I fall asleep now I might fall so deeply I'll never rise
Let's stay awake awhile
If I fall asleep now I might fall so deeply I'll never rise
Let's stay awake awhile
If I fall asleep now I might fall so deeply I'll never rise
Let's stay awake awhile
If I fall asleep now I might fall so deeply I'll never rise
Let's stay awake awhile
If I fall asleep now I might fall so deeply I'll never rise
Let's stay awake awhile
If I fall asleep now I might fall so deeply I'll never rise
Let's stay awake awhile
