you lay your heart down in a thunderstorm you strike the lightening to keep warm you aim for feelings so you play it rough you kill the love you need a fire or you're not amazed you light the torch and it's ablaze but when it all has burnt down to the ground nothing remains

it hurts to see you trying every day to make the flames all come your way but baby, I can heat up on my own I see you burning sparks up to the roof but honey, I'm not fire-proof cool down or you'll end up all alone
on your own

I see the danger of the state we're in I touch your hand and scorch my skin I can't be intimate without the pain I long for rain
I know your passion and it's way too hot I'm blown away with every shot but when your bullet hits me in my soul you swallow me whole swallow me whole

but baby, I can heat up on my own
I see you burning sparks up to the roof

and when there's nothing left to burn there's no lesson left to learn and no one to burn you in return and from the ashes I will rise once more and love you greater than before

I know you want me 'cause I cool you so I'll never let go never let go
never let go

but baby, I can heat up on my own
I see you burning sparks up to the roof
(2x)
