bite me, fill me with your venom let me feel your firey breath
bite me, fill me with your venom make me feel the burn of death the night is darker even with the stars and the moon your life is empty never thought you'd end it so soon eat me, open up your inside take me to a place in your womb

share with me the taste of doom the night is darkest in the sky and inside your heart your life is useless you were meant to fail from the start

do it
no
yes
no

the sun will rise even though you can't see it yet the day is brighter a light that you should never forget
