when you see the spiral turning through alone and you feel so heavy that you just can't stop it when this sea of madness turns you into stone picture of your life shoots like a rocket all the time
put 'me' in the equation it's alright I've seen you moving in and out of sight my friends tell me it's all cut through you (?)
from nowhere - to nowhere cut together - cutting through I'm island-bound, a mote inside my eye I can't see you breathing as before I am airless - a vacuum child I can't stand to reason at your door in this time
put 'me' in the equation it's alright
come together
I'm down in the daytime out of sight comin' in from dreamland I'm on fire I can see it's all been here before dream a dream that lies right at your door when the seasons circle sideways out of turn and words don't speak just fall across the carpet you're just in time to watch the fires burn it seems a crime but yr. face is bright you love it
