"Watt Here! I'm downstairs from your window... if you're up...

pub 'phone booth... if you're up...(I get tense) [Beep]"

[Mike Watt]

"Thurston! Watt! Thurston! I think it's ten thirty, we're calling from Providence, Rhode Island. Did you find your shit?

You gotta

watch the motin' Thurston, your fuckin' memory just goes out tha window.

We couldn't find it in the van at all, we wonderin' if you looked in that trash can. When we threw out that trash, man, was the bag in your hand, did you dump it? Call later. Bye."
