the new sky's falling,
the new sky's falling,
the new sky's falling on me.
the trees a bending, see is an ending,
i ain't got no eys to see.
as the new sky's falling
no one's running,
no one's running but me.

for i know
that i go.
the new sky's falling,
the new sky's falling,
the new sky's falling on me.
and she told me i'm running,
she told me i'm running,
she told me i'm running from me.
the new sky's falling,
the new sky's falling,
i ain't got no eyes to see.
