You can hear my engine hummin' comin' rumblin' up the road
And I know when you meet me at the fenceline in the sunshine
You'll be lookin' fine in your bandana and your blue jeans
Baby would you ride with me

Climb up in the seat, put your bare feet up, tap along to the radio
Girl we can go kick around downtown with the top down
We can follow this county road wherever it leads
Baby would you ride with me

Take my hand, say I do
I wanna go down this road with you
High and low, thick and thin
Forever's just around the bend
And we'll be right where we wanna be
Baby would you ride with me

You know, life is a bull when the gate gets pulled and we'd better be holdin' on tight It's a roller coaster flippin' over, it's a sailboat on the tide of a wide open sea
Baby would you ride with me

Take my hand, say I do
I wanna go down this road with you
High and low, thick and thin
Forever's just around the bend
And we'll be right where we wanna be
Baby would you ride with me

I've been thinkin' all day that if life is a highway we all travel on
The one that I wanna see in the seat sittin' with me
When I make these dreams come true
Is you, it's you, and it feels so fine when you

Take my hand and say I do

I wanna go down this road with you
High and low, thick and thin
Forever's just around the bend
And we'll be right where we wanna be
Baby would you ride with me

Baby would you take a ride with me
