"We Found 3 Whistles"

1, 2,
1, 2, 3, GO!

Neighbors stare from windows above.
Oh, what do they see? Oh, what do they know?
Laughs we make, make their heads ache.
With nothing to fear, with nothing we know.
GO!

Three whistles in two worlds we found.
Behind the white blocks, the hidden time warp
Swept into the clouds above
Flown to the dark zone as bothers in arms.

In two (years or so) years or so
We won't live (here no more) here no more
We made (pillow castles) pillow castles
And played (Mario) Mario

Our childhood spent controller in hand.
"One toot on this whistle will send you to a faraway land."

1, 2,
1, 2, 3, GO!

Ah, Ah Ah, Ah Ahhhhh (Faraway land) x 4
