Some people dream about success, while others, they wake up to reach it

As I'm glued to my seat, my kicks struggle to retreat/a struggle in my seat/ it's a struggle if I flea/ I open up the book in front of my eyes try to feel it/but nothing soakin' in my mind i constantly hear rhythms/the rhythms in the music, the rhythms I be doing/ I don't do this for amusement, the movements set for proving/ to understand the master plan yet I cannot consume it/ there's pressure to just do it, yo I'm blooming in this music/ distracting me, giving me two sides, the same like I'm congruent/ work ethic is not fluent see i try to get into it/ I try to get into it but my efforts hit the losers/ and if I hit the losers, I stay puzzled like a rubix/ I choose this/ artistic lifestyle to raise my profile/ but when I speak my dreams everybody just smiles/ pat me on my shoulder kindly phrasing that it's over/ but i'm always rollin' over on my bed/ so I can sleep to dream

When I'm not sleeping,
I'm thinking bout leaving,
and telling you stories of life
When I am sleeping,
I'm thinking bout dreaming,
of where am I soaring tonight?

Some people dream, some people dream (then wake up) X3
Some people dream, some people dream
Some people dream, some people dream (then wake
up) X3
Some people dream, some people dream

Steady dreaming I'm steady dreaming bout leaving demons/behind cause I be feeling like the difference is eating/Inside I'm wanting to fly, fly a flyer than high/ I take out wings from my nap sack and hit up the sky/ I get the sky scraping, I get the sky tasting/ ya'll cats is land crawling, ya'll cats is land scaping/ scraping you thinking hoping, hoping that doors would open/ but you don't got a key/how you gone get em open, huh?

/ now there's a better question that my mind be on/and how come i'm feeling like my mind is eons ahead/I rather dream in bed, but when I am awake I am living those/ dreams

When I'm not sleeping,
I'm thinking bout leaving,
and telling you stories of life
When I am sleeping,
I'm thinking bout dreaming,
of where am I soaring tonight?

Some people dream, some people dream (then wake
up) X3
Some people dream, some people dream
Some people dream, some people dream (then wake
up) X3
Some people dream, some people dream
