Did you ever know love
'Cause I want to be with you
Did you ever know love
'Cause I want to be with you
Did you ever see a light inside your mind
Did you ever stop
To look why it makes you blind.
You should feel the love
From my skin to my bones
It's a feeling that is making me high

There is something and it makes me smile
I think I like you
There is something burning in my mind yeah
I think I like you

Did you ever think twice
'Cause I want to be with you
No doubt from my side
'Cause I want to be with you
Did you ever make love
Was I on your mind
Did you ever get enough
Were you satisfied
You should feel the love
From my skin to my bones
It's a feeling that is making me high

There is something and it makes me smile
I think I like you
There is something burning in my mind yeah
I think I like you

I want you
To call me
Don't you forget.
I'll wait
And wonder
So don't waste my time

There is something and it makes me smile

I think I like you
There is something burning in my mind yeah
I think I like you
