Talking, kissing that eve
She was hot, she was sweet
I had a drink in the bar
Took a walk on the street
And later on that night, I went back home
When I was back home,
I heard her voice
She wasn't talking to me
But through the telephone
She left a message on my answering machine

It said
When love, love is on my mind
Love, love, love makes me feel alive
The moment I met you, the place, the time
Love, love was already on my mind
The one thing I live for
It's like my gasoline

So we met again
I dressed up real good
Her red lips, red boots
We were kissing again
And then late that night

She went home with me
And at my place
She had dinner with me
Romantic candle lights
Classic tunes
The master bedroom

Wanted to be satisfied
And she said

Well love, love, is on my mind
Love, love, love makes me feel alive
The moment I met you, that place, the time
Love, love was already on my mind
The one thing I live for
It's like my gasoline, yeah
