Diamond floors
It's raining money
Everything's for sale but you still want more
Sell your soul
Buy a new body
And you still want more and more

Oh Lord, you better get in touch with the devil
Oh Lord, you better get in touch with the devil

Trees go black
And give back gold
No word of thanks a lethal fault
Sell your soul
Buy a new body
The greedy one takes it all

Oh Lord, you better get in touch with the devil
Oh Lord, you better get in touch with the devil

Silver Thread through a needle's eye
You are stitching a deal
Cutting a line
Burn your soul
Burn your body
Who would you be if you were on fire

Oh Lord, you better get in touch with the devil
Oh Lord, you better get in touch with the devil
