Song by Deftones

First you smile at lord, I found you first Liquified inside you, but that's if I even see you
Make you smile, I look over crying,
A getback!!!!
But that's too bad you get stuck with whores!!!
Look at yourself you ain't no genius!!!
I want to find, you won't find me, I'm coming home, but I
First you raining for, It can't be saved
Liquified him more and more,
Fuck you bitch!!!
(gibberish) to go and I go and I go and I don't know
Cause I'm sick
and this ain't fun anymore!!!
But that's too bad you get stuck with whores
Look at yourself you ain't no genius
you want to find, you won't find me I'm coming home I
But that's too bad you get stuck with whores
Look at yourself you ain't no genius
you want to find you won't find me I'm coming home, hurt
You got this close to bashing (fashion?) the cash flow
How the fuck you gonna tell me what you don't know
Your this close to bashing the cash flow
How the fuck you gonna tell me something
Your this close to bashing in the cash
How the fuck you gonna tell me what you don't know
Your this close to bashing
How the fuck you gonna tell me something
Tell me something (a couple of times)
Say your prayers
But that's too bad you get stuck with whores
Look at yourself you ain't no genius
You want to find, you won't find me I'm coming home I
