Worried I'm getting older, and that my bangs have grown too long.
Worried I lost my car keys, or that I've said something wrong.
Worried about the mess that's in my house, that's in my heart.
Worried that I'll go crazy every time that we're apart.

Pessimistic as it seems, sleep will never come that
easy,
We will always have bad dreams, we will always have
bad dreams

Falling in love and into credit debt much too deep too fast.
I envy the futures of all my friends and I get jealous about your past.
If it gets too close, if it gets too much, I'm scared I'll disappear.
Well babe I might step back but if I go too far, promise you'll wait for me right here.

Pessimistic as it seems, sleep will never come that
easy,
bad dreams

bad dreams
bad dreams

Pessimistic as it seems, sleep will never come that
easy,
bad dreams
