"Prayer of Death"

Visit "Prayer of Death" on MotoLyrics.com

I want to die without no fear
I want to die rejoicing
I want to meet my brother there
And hear his glorious voice sing

Could not bear it to be left alone
In this world so full of sorrow
So if you leave this world today
I'll follow you tomorrow

I want to be prepared to die
In any kind of weather
I want for you to be ready too
We'll fly away together

If you think your life will have no end
Your foolish days are numbered
Go and waste your time trying to pretend
Still you're bound for eternal slumber

And the wicked men who rule this land
With all their wealth and power
Are bound to die like you and I
And none can tell the hour

I want to live in freedom now
I will not wait for Heaven
I want to sing til Babylon falls
And we all will be forgiven

I want die without no fear
How I want to die rejoicing
How I want to meet my brother there
And hear his glorious voice sing
