Ad Infernum
I was alone
The path lay before me
Illuminated by
The blood of those
Who went
The hard way

Silence oppressive
Death imminent
Chaotic evil
Raping the order
Killing the light

Submit to your fears
Obsessed with your faults
Surrender to the darkness within Initializing Armageddon
End of transmission

Massa di requiem per tellus
Amanged for choir & flesh
An eldritch chaos of demon cacophony
Such sweet disharmony
Almost sacred
In it's blasphemy

Now..
To rest
To die
Sleep..
Perchance to dream
Of nightmares and coffin-worm

Such sprow, then
To wake up
To be alive
Not dreaming
In a corpsecity beneath the waves..

Infernal Winter

No way to recapture the feeling
Cannot reclaim a crumbled throne
Cursed with awareness
Of a time that has died

Detached I sever the bonds
Adorning my shell with crimson threads
Attuning my flesh to my spirit
Revelling in the agony

My breath is chill
My blood is ice
My embrace the freezing death
Frozen to the core
Subzero emotions
So cold it burns

Let the cold penetrate you
Let the cold penetrate you
Let the cold..all the way..in.
