Well my God called this morning
hey lordy oh
well my God called this morning
Just a little while before day well my God called me this morning
hey lordy oh
let me tell ya, my God called this morning
Just a little while before day

Well I stopped and I listened how sweet the voice did sound It sounded like a beat beat beatin' of an angels wings I see him from the heaven coming down and then I stags and I steadied myself I looked but I saw no one til I go away up in glory and I saw God's darlin' son let me tell you that the prayer (?wheel?) started to turning and the Spirit of God said my son was murdered and the prayer (?wheel?) turned over and I moved one step on to glory and I rose up a shoutin', shoutin' Lord God Almighty

Well, my God called me this mornin'
just a little while before day Well I heard the rumblin' thunder Hey hey lordy and I saw the sinners goin' under
just a little while before day then I saw the zigzag lightning
hey hey lordy

Well I heard the hellhound barking
just a little while before day well now stop let me tell you what my God said to me, he said: If you want to make it to the Kingdom you better fall on your bended knees My Lordy the prayer (?wheel?) started (?bumpin'?) and the spirit of God sent my soul a jumping and the prayer (?wheel?)
turned over and I moved one step on to glory

and I rose up a shoutin', shoutin' Lord God Almighty Oh, my God called me this mornin'
just a little while before day God called this mornin' a little while, a little while, a little while, before day
