Get up, head feels like a cannonball
Walk straight and your legs only let you fall
In a room where you spent most of the night

Jump in and sink like a diver
To the bottom where you know that you'll find her
In a room where you spent most of the night

And I want you
And I want you

Shoes on, head feels like a cannonball
Closed door, closed mind, you got nowhere to hide
On a street where you spent most of your life

Jump in and sink like a diver
To the bottom, where you know that you'll find her
In a room where you spent most of the night

And I want you
So come on over
And I want you

And all we've got is this fire
Fire
How do we always end up hurt
Fire
Fire

Get up, head feels like a cannonball
Walk straight and your legs only let you fall
In a room where you spent most of your life

Fire

All we've got is this fire
Fire
How do we always end up hurt
Fire
Fire

And I want you
So come on over
And I want you
And I want you
So come on over
And I want you

All we've got is this fire
Fire
How do we always end up hurt
Fire
Fire
How do we always end up hurt
