The chapters of... of lament
Why bring this sorrow
The chapters of... of lament

These things followed me down from grace...
We fall down to brace her wellness
Blessed like angels, hurts like martyrs...
Light this moment to your sorrow
Make that smile that I love so...
Please be all mine
Be mine, all mine

(I'm in this all alone, wake me up, I'm in a nightmare,
And your not here to seek me out and watch me die!
I'm all ears to be sacrificed, once a upon the heavens.)
We see the light
We see our fight

The dead will teach the living
We cannot scream surrender [3X]

I'm so afraid I wont see your pretty face
Locked on my eyes as we did in the golden days [2X]

My love for you is strong like oak
I wish I can be with you... these things... that follow me
I wish these memories would Just leave... [2X]
I'm in this all alone, wake me up, I'm in a nightmare,
And your not here to seek me out and watch me die!

Rise to touch the open sky, rise to open up the sky.
Crack the sky [2x]
Nothing helps us [4x]
Just leave!
