APRIL by The Hall Effect
Why i didn't know, about the pain
that you felt when i was around you.
I was to blind to realize that you faked happiness waiting for me to change.

Are you crying?
Are you dying?
I didn't see it, i'm not lying
You cared for me, i know you did, i hope it's not to late to say it now.

Happily, putting on an act. I know you were
and all i left you with were painful memories.
Now i'm all alone, and all i can say is you don't know what you've got until it's gone, so...

Are you crying?
Are you dying?
I didn't see it, i'm not lying
You cared for me, i know you did, i hope it's not to
late to say it now.
